

Technology Policy

When on assignment and connecting to Advantage Technical Resourcing's client's technology (laptops, desktops, intranet, extranet, VPN, etc.), associates are required to adhere to all applicable policies and procedures issued by the client. Advantage Technical Resourcing associates should contact their Advantage Technical Resourcing representative with any questions related to any client policies.

Associates may refer to Advantage Technical Resourcing's Technology Policy as a general reference for "best practices" relating to use of technology. If you would like a copy of Advantage Technical Resourcing's Technology Policy, please contact your Advantage Technical Resourcing representative.
